DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-4 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach or suggest, in the claimed combination, an instruction drop-off warning system comprising:

identification-information storing means, which is incorporated in an instruction sheet used for conveying to a worker an operation to be performed on a work object and which enables identification information of said instruction sheet to be read without physical contact;

instruction-information storing means, which stores as instruction information said identification information of said instruction sheet attached on said work object in correspondence with management information of said work object;

information-reading/writing means, which reads or writes the identification information from or into said identification-information storing means of said instruction sheet attached on said work object;

instruction-information adding means, which writes, in the instruction information, said identification information of said instruction sheet when said instruction sheet is attached to said work object;

removal-information writing means, which writes, in the instruction information, said identification information of said instruction sheet when said instruction sheet is removed from said work object;

instruction-presence checking means, which compares the identification information retrieved from said identification-information storing means of said instruction sheet by the information-reading/writing means with said instruction information stored in said instruction-information storing means and checks if said instruction sheet has dropped off, and warning means, which warns of the drop-off of said instruction sheet if said instruction-presence checking means judges that said instruction sheet has dropped off.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
